

Chapter 10

1) What does God own that makes him “the wealthiest person in the universe”?

Why does he own it?

What does God not own?

2) If God owns everything, then what does that make us?

As trustees, how are we to use what God has entrusted to us?

3) Did God create us to get wealth or to display wealth? Explain.

4) In the New Testament, what is the apex of the wealth of God’s glory?

5) How is Jesus essential to this “wealth of mercy”?

How do he and his work embody both God’s justice and his mercy?

6) If God’s mercy is so valuable, how may we obtain it? Must we purchase it?

7) List some ways that Jesus’ life on earth was a lavish display of free mercy to all kinds of people?

8) How should it affect you and your approach to God today, to remember that Jesus is now still a merciful high priest?
