

Chapter 8

- 1) Will we contemplate the murder of Christ in eternity? If so, what will be our response?
- 2) What is significant about the relationship between the degree to which Christ deserved to suffer and the degree to which he did suffer?
- 3) To what degree did Christ have a right to retaliation, revenge, refutation of his accusers, and defense?

To what degree did he do these things?

- 4) List the ways in which Christ's sufferings were physically painful.
- 5) List the ways in which Christ's sufferings were socially / relationally painful.
- 6) Who designed the sufferings of Christ?
- 7) How did Christ respond to that design? What sustained him through it?
- 8) What does it mean that "the suffering and weakness of Jesus were a work of his sovereign power"?
- 9) What two purposes were accomplished in the sufferings of Christ?
